New Delhi, the 17th June 1960

No 9 PL(1)/60.—There are six Marine Services under the Commissioners for the Port of Calcutta viz Assistant Harbour Masters' Services Hooghly Pilot Service, Dredger and Despatch Service Marine Engineers' Service, River Survey Service and Berthing Masters' Service. All are essential for the maintenance of the navigable channel and for movement of ships into and from the Port.

2 In 1951 the Government of India appointed a Ports Marine Services Enquiry Committee under the Chairmanship of Shri N S Tokur, retired High Court Judge. It considered the demands of the various Marine Services mentioned above (except Marine Engineers) as also of similar services at the Port of Bombay. Its report made available in 1955 was duly considered by Government and certain decisions taken which have already been implemented.

3 However there were many service matters which were either not touched upon by the said Committee or had been raised subsequently. Each of these Services has put in a series of demands. Government are of the view that these demands cannot be considered piecemeal and they have decided to set up a one Member Committee consisting of Shri N Guha Roy, a retired Judge of the Calcutta High Court to enquire into the conditions of service of the six Marine Services at the Port of Calcutta.

4 The terms of reference of the Committee will be as follows—

(i) To enquire into and report on the conditions of all categories of persons employed in the Port of Calcutta which are detailed in the Schedule, and to make recommendations generally and with special reference to the following matters keeping in mind the considerations mentioned in clause (iii) below—

- (a) Scales of pay,
- (b) Allowances and fees,
- (c) system of turns, hours of work and periods of rest
- (d) Adequacy or otherwise of the strength of the existing cadres and the basis on which they should be fixed
- (e) Desirability of adoption of an interim scheme of remuneration for abnormal work, as a result of shortages in existing cadres

(ii) To examine whether the recommendations of the Ports Marine Services Enquiry Committee 1955 should be amended or supplemented regard being had to the representations submitted by the various Marine Services Associations of the Port of Calcutta.

(iii) In making their recommendations the Committee will take into account the prevailing pay scales, allowances and other conditions of service in similar services at other major ports the recommendations of the Central Pay Commission in regard to comparable Government Services and the historical background.

5 The Committee shall have its headquarters at Calcutta and shall submit its report within five months.
